PER CURIAM:

Karon Ann Parham appeals the district court's orders dismissing her motions to accept newly discovered evidence, for entry of default, and for default judgment. We have reviewed the records and the district court's opinions and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we dismiss on the reasoning of the district court. Parham v. Coca-Cola Co., No. CA-97-136-3 (E.D. Va., Jan. 5, 1998); Parham v. Coca-Cola Co., No. CA-96-551 (E.D. Va., Mar. 6, 1998). Because these appeals are frivolous, we deny Parham's motion to proceed in forma pauperis in No. 98-1419 and to remand the case in No. 98-1095. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.

DISMISSED
